Petersbourg, March 10.

GEneral Lowendahl ſet out from hence on the 8th Inſtant, to return to his Government of Revel; having had the Command given him of the Felt Marſhal Count Munich's Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, which is in Quarters there. The Turkiſh Ambaſſadour who is on his Way hither, will make a Halt at Novogorod, till the Waters are open for the more eaſy Conveyance of his Retinue and Baggage in Boats through the Canal of Ladoga.

Berlin, April 4. The Prince of Anhalt-Deſſau ſet out from hence four Days ago, to take upon him the Command of the Army of Obſervation which is to be drawn together between Brandenbourg and Magdebourg. It is to conſiſt of 36000 Men; ſome of the Troops have begun to march to the general Rendezvous, and it is reckoned that within three Weeks the Camp will be compleatly formed. Proper Orders have been iſſued for ſending thither Forage and Proviſions neceſſary for ſubſiſting thoſe Troops. A Battallion of the Regiment of Groben came hither on the 28th paſt, and on the 29th proceeded on their March for the Army of Obſervation. Prince Ferdinand of Pruſſia's Regiment followed them the next Day; and the two Battallions of the Regiment of Flans have ſince taken the ſame Route from hence. The Regiment of Horſe of Bredau is on the March to Sileſia, whither 200 Recruits for the Huſſars in the King's Army are likewiſe ordered: They are to be armed and mounted at Francfort on the Oder. Letters from Ottmachau adviſe, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has cauſed Cardinal Sintzendorff to be ſeized and put under Arreſt, for holding Correſpondence with and giving Intelligence to the Auſtrian Officers at Neiſs, and other Places. We expect to learn by the next Advices, that two Bodies of Pruſſian Troops have laid Siege to the Towns of Neiſs and Brieg.

Wine Licence Office, March 26, 1741.

His Majeſty's Commiſſioners for managing the Revenue ariſing by Wine Licences, give Notice, That conſtant Attendance is given at their Office in Arundel-ſtreet in the Strand, for Diſpatch of the Buſineſs thereof, on Tueſdays, Wedneſdays, Thurſdays, and Fridays, in the Forenoon, Holidays excepted.

Stamp-Office, Lincoln's Inn, April 2, 1741.

The Commiſſioners having received Information, that there have been lately publiſhed a great Number of Pamphlets, conſiſting of one Sheet of Paper, and commonly called Broadſides, without having the ſame Stamped; and alſo a great Number of other Pamphlets, conſiſting of Collections of Songs, without being brought to this Office to be entered or the Duties paid for the ſame; and that a Practice hath lately prevailed of Printing and publiſhing thoſe and other Pamphlets without the true Name and Place of Abode of the Printer or Publiſher inſerted therein; Have thought fit to give this publick Notice; that they will proſecute with the utmoſt Severity any Perſon that ſhall print, utter, or expoſe to ſale, any of the ſaid Pamphlets, commonly called Broadſides, without having the ſame duly Stamped, or ſhall print, utter, or expoſe to ſale any of the ſaid other Pamplets, unleſs they are entered at this Office, and the Duties paid for the ſame, or any Pamphlets whatſoever, unleſs the true Name and Place of Abode of the Perſon by whom the ſame are really printed and publiſhed are inſerted therein, as the Law Directs.

Eſſex, April 2, 1741.

Notice is hereby given, That the next Meeting of Truſtees for the ſeveral Turnpikes at Mountneſſing, Waltham and Kivenhall, in this County, is appointed at the Red Lyon in Chelmsford, on Thurſday the Ninth of this Inſtant April; at which Time and Place the ſaid Turnpikes are to be Lett to the beſt Bidder.
